

WE LOVE STONES

About Us

StoneHardscapes is an innovative natural stone importer, specializing in unique and visually appealing selections of travertine, marble, granite and limestone, available in tile, pavers, veneer and accessories. With our primary distribution center in Fort Lauderdale, we maintain a sizable inventory, while proudly offering custom creations of patterns, and importing requested products, in an effort to fulfill each client's unique vision.

StoneHardscapes has the infrastructure necessary to serve homeowners, designers, architects, contractors and trade professionals around the world. With the help of a complete logistics department to ensure a simplified and efficient delivery process, as well as offering complimentary design services to both consumers and business partners, we set out to ensure each project exceeds the expectations of its most ideal outcome. In addition, StoneHardscapes thrives on providing clients the information and tools necessary to understand product limitations and installation recommendations, as well as the most suitable options for safety purposes. Samples, displays, and mock-ups are always available upon request. StoneHardscapes is proud of its long-lasting client relationships based on quality products and ideal customer service. In order to provide the ideal product solutions, we synthesize a variety of disciplines to create cost-effective and distinct product options.

Design Division

About the Design Division

Here, at StoneHardscapes, we believe each and every one of our clients deserves personalized attention when working towards creating their very own oasis. Whether it be remodeling, renovating or new construction, StoneHardscapes is here to guide you from concept to completion. With our complimentary design services, we offer our clients one-on-one time with one of our in-house designers, who offers comprehensive planning, detailing and expert assistance.

Our showroom, located in the heart of Fort Lauderdale, FL, displays natural stone pavers, veneer, tile, and accessories from around the world. Our in-house design team is happy to walk you through all of our selections on display, as well as out in the warehouse. If you are outside the Fort Lauderdale area, no problem; simply contact us toll-free and one of our experienced designers will walk you through our design process as if you were here.

From texture and color, to durability and safety, our designers will aid you in making the most educated choices for your project. With team work and a company-wide commitment to exceeding the expectations and needs of our clients, StoneHardscapes strives to always bring the client's vision to life.

Natural Stone

Safe

StoneHardscapes has completed Coefficient of Friction Testing on the Palazzo Collection product options to ensure each passes required government safety regulations.

Cool

StoneHardscapes' Palazzo Collection provides various options that remain cool-to-the-touch, despite extensive sun exposure, creating the perfect exterior flooring.

Bright

StoneHardscapes' Palazzo Collection is a product of nature, therefore it can endure prolonged sun exposure without fading.

Easy

The Palazzo Collection natural stone pavers are easy to maintain, offering stronger, more durable options than other alternatives. Its low maintenance requirements reduce ongoing costs and add enduring curb appeal and increased property value.
